

COPYRIGHT ASSIGNMENT AND AUTHORSHIP DECLARATION DRAFT

Manuscript title: Legal and Ethical Considerations for Integrating Forensic Odontology into Hospital Management Systems: A Review

This draft is prepared for author confirmation in line with the journal copyright and authorship declarations. Authors should replace it with any official journal-generated form if the submission system provides one.

In the event that the manuscript is accepted for publication, the authors certify that they have participated sufficiently in the intellectual content, conception, analysis, interpretation, writing, or critical revision of this work and take public responsibility for it.

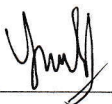

The authors certify that the manuscript represents original work, has not been published previously, and is not under consideration elsewhere in English, Arabic, or any other language, except as disclosed in the cover letter.

The authors confirm that all ethical, financial, and conflict-of-interest declarations have been disclosed in the manuscript and cover letter.

The authors authorize the corresponding author to make necessary changes requested by the journal and to handle correspondence on behalf of all authors.

In the event of publication, the authors agree to transfer the required copyright or publication rights to the journal according to the journal's copyright policy and applicable Creative Commons license.
