Arab Journal of Forensic Sciences & Forensic Medicine

Dear Editor-in-Chief,

We respectfully submit the manuscript entitled “Legal and Ethical Considerations for Integrating Forensic Odontology into Hospital Management Systems: A Review” for consideration as a Review Article in the Arab Journal of Forensic Sciences & Forensic Medicine.

The manuscript reviews legal, ethical, and governance considerations for integrating forensic odontology into hospital management systems, including dental record governance, confidentiality, lawful disclosure, informed consent, expert independence, evidence integrity, and institutional accountability. The topic is aligned with the journal’s scope because it concerns forensic odontology and the interaction between science, medicine, and law.

This manuscript has not been published previously and is not under consideration by another journal in English, Arabic, or any other language. All authors have reviewed and approved the manuscript and agree to its submission. The manuscript includes English and Arabic abstracts. If the journal requires revision of the Arabic abstract according to preferred terminology, we would be grateful for editorial guidance.

Ethical approval was not required because the article is a review based only on published literature, professional guidance, and publicly available legal or policy documents. It did not involve human participants, human data, surveys, deceased individuals, clinical records, human tissue, or animals.

No external funding was received for this work. The authors declare no conflicts of interest.

AI-assisted tools were used only for language editing, formatting support, and manuscript organization; the authors verified the final content and remain fully responsible for the accuracy and integrity of the manuscript.

Thank you for considering our manuscript for publication in the Arab Journal of Forensic Sciences & Forensic Medicine.

Sincerely,

Yessy Andriani Fauziah
